

THE PAN CHALLENGE:

The Patient Assistance Safety Net:

How Many Need Help? How Many Are Helped?

In collaboration with The American Journal of Managed Care®

Abstracts Due: October 31, 2017

ELIGIBILITY

The 2017 PAN Challenge (“Challenge”) is open to individuals and teams of individuals who are 18 years of age or older at the time of entry (each individual, each team, each individual member of a team, and each entity is referred to as an “Entrant” in these Rules).

Entrants must be residents of the United States and sponsored by (“Sponsor Organization”):

- (a) a university or college
- (b) a department/school within a university/college
- (c) a health system
- (d) not-for-profit organization
- (e) for-profit entity

Collaborations between organizations are encouraged and a team may be comprised of individuals from more than one organization. Only one organization can be identified as the Sponsor Organization. To enter the Challenge, Entrants must provide information about the Entrant and Sponsor Organization. The term “Sponsors” means full-time professors, deans or senior faculty/staff of a Sponsor Organization who have the authority to make sponsorship decisions on behalf of their organizations. Affiliated Persons are ineligible to participate in the Challenge.

For more information about eligibility, see the Official Rules.
